

LATC — OFFICIAL RULEBOOK

Latitude Air Traffic Control (LATC)

Official Community & Operations Rulebook

Version 1.0

1. Introduction

Welcome to Latitude Air Traffic Control (LATC).

LATC is an aviation-focused community built around realistic, organised, and enjoyable air traffic control and flight operations. Our goal is to provide a structured environment where pilots, air traffic controllers, and staff can enjoy aviation without unnecessary restrictions or drama.

By participating in LATC, you agree to follow this rulebook.

These rules apply across:

- LATC Roblox operations
- LATC Discord
- LATC websites
- LATC events
- LATC applications
- LATC staff activities
- Any official LATC communication platform

Staff may take action against behaviour that negatively affects LATC even when that behaviour occurs outside an official operation if it directly involves or targets LATC members or the organisation.

2. Core Principles

LATC operates around five main principles:

2.1 Respect

Treat other members, pilots, controllers, visitors, and staff with respect.

2.2 Realism

When participating in an LATC operation, members should make a reasonable effort to follow aviation procedures and instructions.

2.3 Fairness

Everyone should have an equal opportunity to participate regardless of rank, experience, or position.

2.4 Safety

Realism should never take priority over player safety or common sense.

2.5 Enjoyment

LATC is a community. Rules exist to make operations better, not to make them unnecessarily difficult.

25. Rule Enforcement

LATC staff have discretion when enforcing the rulebook.

Not every situation can be covered by a specific rule.

Staff may act against behaviour that clearly violates the purpose of the rules even if the exact behaviour is not explicitly listed.

However, staff should use reasonable judgement and avoid unnecessary punishment.

26. Rule Interpretation

If a rule is unclear, members should ask LATC staff for clarification.

Ignorance of a rule does not automatically excuse a violation.

Rules may be updated as LATC develops.

Members are responsible for following the latest published version.

27. Rule Changes

LATC administration may modify this rulebook when necessary.

Major changes should be announced to the community.

Previous versions may be retained for transparency.

28. Final Authority

- Operational permissions
- Moderation
- Applications
- Events
- Partnerships
- Rule interpretation

Administrative decisions may be appealed where an appeal system exists.

The most important rule of LATC is simple:

Don't ruin the experience for everyone else.

Use common sense, respect other members, follow reasonable instructions, and help make LATC a community people actually want to be part of.
